✝ Finding My Father

Rap artist Legin exploded onto the music scene in 2009, winning the best male rap artist at the Youth Gospel Entertainment awards. His distinctive rhymes interweave past pains with his restored faith in God. To his friends and family, he is simply known as Nigel Anderson. Growing up, Nigel was always in church, but his home life was far from peaceful. "My father was an alcoholic, he ended up getting addicted to drugs and some hard stuff, and my mother would shelter me from that stuff. I was never really exposed to those things, but he would come home drunk, high, and she was getting emotional abuse because of that. She was trying to work her hardest to save her marriage. She stuck by him, but he just made a decision to stay with those things." Despite her efforts to help, his mother decided to leave. Over the next 15 years, Nigel rarely saw his father. Anger and bitterness began to build. "Most people that know me would say I was a good guy, good reputation, kind of chill, but on the inside, I was dying man. I was hurting. I was so hurt by dad not caring enough to be a man, I was like, 'Whatever, I'm just going to do what I want to do.' I had some sort of control over my life when I was doing what I wanted to do all the time." One day, he received a surprise letter from his father inviting him to lunch. "I didn't know what I was going to do, but I know I wanted to cause him some pain. I wanted him to feel what I had been feeling for 15 years. I wanted him to suffer some. I remember walking up behind him to go meet this man who had caused me so much pain. At first it was like tears in my eyes and then it turned to anger. This was payback time. When I walk up to this man, I'm just going to punch him in the face. I touched him and he turned around. I saw a man in his 50s that looked like he was 80. He just said he was sorry. All that anger just turned to pity immediately. I said, 'Dad, I forgive you.' The beautiful thing about that moment was that was for the first time that I think I'd ever felt somebody else experience freedom." A few months later his father passed away. Nigel began to ponder what happens after death. He began to seek God for answers. "I decided to know who this God guy was. I just cried out to Him and I told Him, 'I need You. If You're really there, I need You to talk to me.' The funny thing is He began to talk back to me in my heart and prove who He was." Nigel surrendering his life to God. Opportunities for music began to open up. "Doors opened. The Lord connected me with people. I met great people. I get to see God do for someone else what He did for me." Nigel married and is expecting his first child. He says, "Without having a natural father, I know I am going to be a good father to my child because God's been a good father to me."

Someone Does Care

I found God in the morning, we just sat and talked.
 I kept Him near me everywhere I walked.
 I called on God at noon time, a heart filled with despair.
 I felt His quiet Presence, I knew He was there.

We met again at sunset,
 the waning of the day.
 I had made Him happy,
 I had lived His way.
 Then when at bedtime
 I knelt silently in prayer,
 again His gentle Presence,
 I felt someone does care.

Come and celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation for Lent in the Three Towns:

Monday, 27th March at 7pm at St Peter's, Ardrossan.

Tuesday, 28th March at 2pm at St Mary's, Saltcoats.

Wednesday, 29th March at 7pm at St John's Stevenston.

APPEAL FOR HELP AT ST PETER'S

St Peter's has had a serious gas leak where the old pipes have had to be replaced by new ones and the gas connections to the Church and Presbytery renewed and reinstated. The cost is huge, but it is work that simply has to be done as it concerns public safety. The work is extensive and brings with it a heavy cost to our Parish - the estimate is £18,500. If any Parishioner can make any extra contribution to this cost, I would be very grateful. Special Gift Aid envelopes will be available after Mass. Please help if you can and thank you for anything you can do.

WEE BOX, BIG CHANGE APPEAL

Kabika and her children live in Zambia. Before receiving support from SCIAF they were waking up every day hungry. "We ate once a day, either in the morning or the evening. It was painful – my heart was bleeding. I couldn't feed my children." This Lent, use your WEE BOX to make a big change. Please put your faith into action and give generously to help more families like Kabika's who are suffering from devastating hunger. To find out more please visit sciaf.org.uk/weebox or call 0141 354 5555.

Just for a laugh...

A mother knocked on her son's door one Sunday morning and said, "Get up, dear, it's time to get ready for church." The boy responded, "Oh, mother, I don't want to go to church today. Just let me sleep." The mother replied, "I don't care what you want. Get yourself out of bed, get dressed, and get down to church." He responded, "Mother, I don't want to go! Those people down there don't like me, and I don't like them. Just the other day I was walking down the hall and around the corner I heard some people talking about me. And, Mother, they were saying some awful things. Don't make me go." The mother responded, "I don't care about all that. You get yourself up. You're going." The boy responded, "Why, Mother? Why?" And she said, "For two reasons. First, you're forty-five years old. And second, you're the Parish Priest and they're expecting you down there."
